

OBČANSTVÍ

INFORMATION ABOUT THE CZECH CITIZENSHIP EXAM

Updated and concise information about the Czech Citizenship Exam can be found at <http://obcanstvi.cestina-pro-cizince.cz>

The website is available in Czech, English, Ukrainian, Russian and Vietnamese.

The Czech Citizenship Exam is organised by the Institute for Language and Preparatory Studies of Charles University in Prague (ILPS CU).

The Czech Citizenship Exam comprises two parts:

- Czech Life and Institutions Exam (written form)
- Czech Language Exam (written and oral form)

The following fees have to be paid for the Czech Citizenship Exam:

- The fee for the Czech Life and Institutions Exam: CZK 1,600
- The fee for the Czech Language Exam: CZK 3,300

The applicant will receive information about how to pay for the exam upon completing the on-line application form.

An administration fee of CZK 2,000 is charged for granting Czech citizenship (in certain cases this fee is lower).

You can sign up for the exam in person or at <http://ujop.cuni.cz/zkouška/obcanstvi>.

- Information about results can only be found at <http://ujop.cuni.cz/obcanstvi/vysledky>.
- Those who pass the exam will receive a certificate from ILPS CU.
- Those who do not pass the exam can sign up for any other exam date.

We recommend reviewing the following materials before the exam:

- Model Czech Life and Institutions Exam and the Czech Life and Institutions Exam - Test Question Database
- Sample Czech Language Exam - written part and oral part
- Rules and Information for Candidates

obcanstvi.cestina-pro-cizince.cz

